SMITH LADS. Two sons of Paul Stevens, Esq., of Camden, one aged nine and the other eleven years, have sailed in Camden, since the taking of Fort Sumter, 12,000 copies of the Bangor Whig, Boston Journal, and Traveler. The profits realized by the boys from this sale of these Union papers, amounting to the handsome sum of $100 Mr. Stevens has donated to the aid of our boys in two Treasury notes of $50 each. The interest on each note is one cent a day or $3.65 a year. Well done for "Young America."

DEATH IN THE SECOND MAINE. We learn from Mr. Stuckey of Washington, now on a visit to this city, that James W. Kelly of Exeter, a member of company A, 2d Maine regiment, died in a hospital at Washington, Oct. 10th. The deceased left a wife and two children. He was a brave and noble soldier, and his death is a great loss to the regiment.

One who knows. suggests that a subscription be raised for a gallant soldier of the Second Maine who has returned disabled. We think well of the idea, and in return suggest that "One who knows" head a paper and carry it around.

The Musters. Although the morning was lowering and threatening the soul of the soldier was awake. The line was formed on the Hampden road near the Bangor House, in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

The Independent Volunteers. Capt. Rogers, were out in full ranks, presenting in the uniform of the Bangor Light Infantry, a very fine appearance. They were accompanied by the Union Cornet Band and by a large drum corps in red uniform.

The West Hamilton Home Guard. under Lieutenant Knowles, being taken up, also looked finely.

The left of the line was brought up by the Independent Volunteers, Capt. Rogers, in their neat uniforms of army blue, accompanied by the Drum Corps also uniformed in army blue, and made a very fine appearance.

Col. W. H. Mills, assisted by his staff—Major Thomas Rogers, Capt. A. T. Palmer and A. G. Hunt, all of whom were finely mounted.

The color—the American flag—was received by the Independent Volunteers at the Bangor House, and placed in position in the center.

The line then broke into column and proceeded down Main street, up State to Luce street, to Warren's field, where the battalion was reviewed by Gen. Butler and his staff, consisting of Lieut. Col. Dunning and Major Henry and Smith, after which returns were served.

The turnout, though not large, was very fine, and the men marched well. It is evident that although so many have gone to the war from this section, there is still no lack of fighting men.

Grand Union Meeting. Agreeably to previous notice, the citizens of Bangor and vicinity met at the Five Islands Wagon, on Tuesday the 16th at 1 o'clock P. M., the day being pleasant. Presently at the hour there was about five hundred of the patriotic citizens assembled at the flag staff. The stars and stripes were thrown to the breeze, and the deafening cheers of the people. The meeting was called to order by Thos. S. Ramsey, Esq., who nominated Hon. Asa Smith, of Mattawamkeag, President of the day.

Samuel Davis, Jr., was chosen Secretary. Samuel W. Cushman of Mattawamkeag, Samuel Davis of Bangor, and Alvin Hayes of Mattawamkeag, Vice Presidents.

Prayer by Rev. A. J. Bates, Lincoln. Geo. H. Hayes of Bangor, Samuel Davis, Jr., of Bangor, Thos. S. Ramsey, Nelson Jordan of Bangor, Hiram Fiske of Mattawamkeag, Committee on Resolutions.

Speeches were made by T. S. Snow, Esq., Rev. Sylvester Bates, W. C. Clark, Esq., Rev. A. J. Bates, Thos. S. Ramsey, Esq., and Hon. Asa Smith. The speakers all said, Union and down with the rebellion.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the present war, and of sustaining the measures that have been instituted for maintaining the Constitution of the United States, and the integrity of the Union, against the armed rebellion in the South, and that we sympathize with the brave men who have sacrificed themselves under the glorious stars and stripes in defense of our country.

Resolved, That the cry of peace is the cry of the Unionists, and the terms of their peace is the destruction of the Union, the overthrow of the Constitution, and Government, and the triumph of the Confederate flag, and that we are for such peace, but on the contrary, patriotism, loyalty, the memory of the deeds and sacrifices of our immortal ancestors, the preservation of the great institutions which they fought for and bequeathed to us, all demand, and we demand, war, on one hand, until the Union shall be restored as it was, the Constitution be maintained as it is, and our glorious flag shall be known and respected, at home and among the nations of the earth, in the flag of the United States of America.

The fleet which sailed from this port, arrived at O. J. Point on Monday afternoon, creating a great excitement by its extensive character. A flag of truce came down from Norfolk that day.

The circular of Mr. Seward caused a depression in the stock market today, especially in the Government securities. Some thinking the Secretary of State is in possession of knowledge relative to foreign movements which prompted the selling of some Government securities.

Mr. Seward's circular is regarded here as timely and significant, as showing the necessity of preparing for the interference of foreign powers. It is considered a slight decline in stocks.

It is reported that the Government has suspended the command of the Charleston sailing squadron. The market, however, closed slightly more steady.
